

Eyebuzz Fine Art Mission:

- To show strong work in a variety of mediums
- To engage the public at large in thinking about art
- To promote artists and their vision
- To sell artwork

Gallery Will:

1. Provide and pay for gallery space.
2. Show work during set hours as well as by chance or appointment hours to be established by gallery.
3. Print and distribute post cards for each show; additional advertising at the discretion and expense of the gallery.
4. Transact sales with clients.
5. Hang or display work suitably.
6. Take full responsibility for art work while at the gallery (if lost or destroyed artist will be paid what the artist would have received if the work was sold).
7. Ship or return work back to artist and/or purchaser(s) of work(s).

Artist Will:

1. Provide artwork.
2. Pay for and/or execute necessary framing.
3. Ship or deliver work to gallery ready for display.
4. Provide an inventory sheet of works delivered.
5. Provide up to date contact information.

Additional Information:

- Gallery and artist will split sales 50/50.
- Any discounts off stated price offered by the gallery will be at the expense of the gallery.
- Artist will be paid on the same schedule as gallery receives it. Policy will be 50% paid by client at point of sale, 50% due upon delivery.
- Pricing will be established by the artist and gallery.
- Pricing will be displayed for the public in the gallery.
- Artists are free to exhibit in other venues or galleries.
- All artwork remains the property of the artist until a work is sold. The artist continues to hold the copyright of the image even after sale.
- All copyright issues concerning their work are the sole responsibility of the artist.
- All work will stay on display until the end of the show.
- Artist and gallery will come to an agreement if a sale of work is transacted after the work is no longer at the gallery.
- Gallery will not loan out or remove from the gallery, during the scheduled show, any work without permission from the artist.
